PREFACE.

Herewith the compiler has the honor of presenting to his patrons and the general public, the eighth volume of Webb's Jacksonville and Consolidated Directory. From a primer size in 1876 it has grown with the cities and State, sharing their fortunes and contributing in its own way to their growth—till it has arrived at its present size. It represents, we are proud to say, the enterprise of the people in the cities for which it is published, and is a silent but eloquent testimonial of their unqualified success.

Without their practical endorsement it would be impossible to issue such a work, and it is they who should have full meed of praise if any is deserved, instead of the compiler, for he is but an instrument in accomplishing results. A new Directory, enlarged and improved, will be issued as usual in January, '88. Duly appreciating the confidence bestowed, and hoping always to deserve it,

The People's Servant,

Jacksonville, January, 1887. THE COMPILER.

ST. AUGUSTINE

HOTEL.

E. E. VAILL, - - - - - Proprietor.

This Spacious and Elegant Hotel occupies the most commanding situation in the city ; having recently been enlarged to double its former capacity, offers superior accommodations to the traveling public.

It has a southerly front of 200 feet upon the Plaza, or Public Square, an easterly front of 160 feet upon the Bay, with wide piazzas and hanging balconies from each story, overlooking the City, Bay and Atlantic Ocean.

The House has recently been entirely refitted and refurnished throughout ; the Dining Room, Parlors, Billiard Room and Sleeping Rooms elegantly frescoed. It is lighted with gas and provided with every modern improvement, including water conveniences, electric bells, etc.

The Dining Hall is capable of seating over 300 guests, and the table will be furnished with all the luxuries of the Northern markets.

At this Hotel every convenience will be found in the way of Telegraph and Ticket Offices, Bar and Billiard Saloons, etc., etc.

Music daily by the United States Artillery Band.

The Climate of St. Augustine is unsurpassed. For many years it has been the favorite resort for thousands of invalids and others who desire to escape the rigid winters of the North.

"Ye Ancient City" possesses more attractions than any other place on this continent ; prominent among which are the old fort of "San Marco," with its dungeons ; the ancient Cathedral, Spanish Government House, Coquina buildings, narrow streets, with overhanging balconies, sea walls, etc., etc.

The City has a very eventful history, and still retains all of the characteristics of its Spanish origin. The United States Government built a sea wall, extending the entire length of the city, as a protection from the waves during severe storms, which is much used as a fashionable promenade for both citizens and strangers. It is a favorite resort on moonlight nights, which are enjoyed here to perfection.

Persons wishing to avoid the cold weather of the North, or afflicted with pulmonary complaints, will find St. Augustine one of the most desirable places in the world.

To reach St. Augustine from New York there are four distinct routes : "All Rail" to Jacksonville, thence by J., St. A. & H. R. R., J., T. & K. W. R'y, or boat to Tocoi (forty miles up the St. Johns River, daily), and thence by rail fourteen miles to St. Augustine, or by steamer to Charleston, Savannah, Jacksonville or Fernandina, and by boat or rail from thence to St. Augustine.

Steamers to Charleston twice a week.

31 SOUTH SIXTH STREET, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

WEBB'S
Jacksonville Street Directory,

GIVING the location of each street, and showing what other streets and places run from or across it, with the number at which they intersect.

From this list the location of any number on a street can be easily ascertained, as, for instance, wishing to know at what part of Ocean Street No. 90 comes, you look at Ocean Street upon page 32, and find that W. Duval Street runs from 83, and W. Church Street from 97, showing that 90 Ocean would come about half way between W. Duval and W. Church Streets.

Ocean Street, which runs in a northerly and southerly direction, is the dividing line of those streets in the city proper, running East and West. Those running East from Ocean Street are called East Bay, East Forsyth, East Adams, &c., and those running West from Ocean Street are called West Bay, West Forsyth, West Adams, &c.

Following is a list of the streets, both in Jacksonville and suburbs that make a pretence of being numbered. Other streets will be found at the end of the numbered streets alphabethically arranged.

WEBB'S FLORIDA.

Historical, Industrial and Biographical

By WANTON S. WEBB.

Contains a general review of the State, a detailed account of each County, its boundary, water courses, railroads, topography, soil, productions, prices of lands, climate, health, natural fertilizers, fish, game, stock raising, lumber, natural springs; how, when and where to settle; a description of each city, village and country post office in Florida, down to 1885. The work is 8x12 inches in size, contains over two hundred large double column pages of solid printed matter, and over one hundred illustrations of Florida scenery, some full page, the whole printed on toned paper, with an elegant illustrated cover, designed by Brannan. The weight of the book is one and a half pounds, and it will be sent to any part of the world postpaid, on the receipt of ONE DOLLAR, addressed

WEBB'S FLORIDA,
JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

READ WHAT IS SAID ABOUT IT.

"Certainly the best work of its kind on Florida that I have ever seen.."—H. B. PLANT, President Savannah, Florida, and Western Railway Co., Southern Express Company, and Charleston and Savannah Railway Co.

"It is, beyond any comparison, the most thorough, complete, and satisfactory pictorial and descriptive work on Florida that has yet appeared."—The Florida Despatch.

"We conscientiously recommend it to our readers."—The Indian River Sun.

"Of all works on Florida it is the most excellent and the most accurate."—Ocala Banner.

"Yesterday about midday, WEBB'S FLORIDA, mounted on about twenty drays, was brought from the Fernandina Railway Depot."—Florida Journal.

"As a compendium, accurate, fresh, and complete, we know of nothing that compares with it."—Florida Baptist.

"Without a rival."—Tampa Guardian.

"Throughout the work is a triumph of typographical art."—Tropical Paradise.

"Altogether it is the most comprehensive book on Florida as yet published, and fine engravings make its pages the more attractive."—The Floridian.

"Notices the most insignificant places."—The Pensacolian.

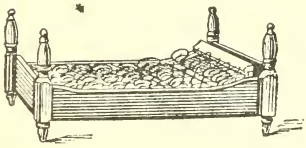
THE ADJUSTABLE AND ROLL-UP

SPRING BEDS,

PATENTED APRIL 11, '82.



READY FOR SHIPPING.

PATENTS FOR Late Improvements WILL SOON BE SECURED.

CHEAPEST, MOST DURABLE AND CONVENIENT ADJUSTABLE SPRING BED MADE.

The Acme of Comfort for You and Yours in Sickness or Health.

NO OTHER SPRING BED SO EASILY CLEANED.

When the bedding is doubled up to one end, one-half the spring bed can be lifted or rolled up and cleaned. The springs are noiseless. They are made from cast steel wire, tempered after they are coiled, making them twice as durable as the coppered steel spring. Japanned to prevent rust. No hooks to tear the bedding or to be lost. The springs cannot get out of place or break. Warranted for five years ; and if you wish a First-Class Bed Spring will be pleased to deliver you one for a week's trial free.

PRICES: Single Beds, $4.00 ; Double Beds (as shown above, 4½ feet wide), $4.50 ; Without the head-raise, $3.50. For larger beds according to the size. When paid for in weekly payments $1.00 extra. For Children's Beds, $1.75 and upwards, according to size of bed. Orders from a distance will receive prompt attention. These beds are used in several hotels in Jacksonville. The Carleton proprietors declare them to be the best, and regret that all their beds are not supplied with them. Liberal reductions in price to Hotels and Boarding Houses. An agent wanted in every town. Liberal commissions.

ELLSWORTH,

—ON THE—

T. O. & A. and T. A. & G. R. Rs.,

With its beautiful country, two Railroads, two Daily Mails, Telegraph and Express connections, make it the BEST LOCATED TOWN IN SOUTH FLORIDA. Large lots, well laid out, cheap and on easy terms, make it within reach of all. To parties who want to invest, or to locate, I would say, with its health, location, quality of soil, high rolling land and Railroad connections—being at the junction—I will leave it to the parties themselves to judge the future prospects. See this new town before locating elsewhere. It may pay for your trouble.

Nothing has been overlooked in the construction of these vessels; and their fine model, fall power and excellent ea-going qualities, have won for them the enviable reputation they possess.

Passenger accommodations, both Cabin and Steerage, are unsurpassed. Staterooms being above the main deck e light, roomy and thoroughly ventilated, thus assuring to the traveler the greatest degree of comfort attainable.

Connections are made at all the ports at which these Steamers touch with all Railroads and teamboats.

Through Coupon Tickets are on sale, and Through Rates of Passage and Freight are named to interior towns d cities, including those of California, Mexico, New Mexico and Arizona.

No other Passenger Steamers run between New York and the ports named above.

THIS IS THE FAVORITE ROUTE TO FLORIDA.

EAST COAST STEAMSHIP CO.,

Steamer Peerless.  Winter Schedule.

Leave Jacksonville, Hartridge's Wharf, next to City Market, every Tuesday and Friday at 10 A. M. Arriving at New Smyrna, every Wednesday and Saturday at 6 A. M.

Returning, leaves New Smyrna every Wednesday and Saturday at 6 P. M. Arriving at Jacksonville at 8 A. M., Thursday and Sunday. At New Symrna direct connection is made with Steamer Picolata for all landings on the Halifax and Hillsboro Rivers.

Advantages and Pleasures—Shippers will find rates by this line 30 per cent lower than by any other line. Time from 24 to 36 hours quicker. No transferring or carting freight. Orange box stuff carried free on being returned full. Tourists cannot find a more pleasant trip in Florida, as it gives them a view of the St. Johns River to the Bar, and from there a short sea voyage of one hundred miles.

For further information apply to or call on Company's Agents,

EQUINOX HOUSE,

SUMMER RESORT.

MANCHESTER, VERMONT.

A DELIGHTFUL summer resort among the Green Mountains, 200 miles north of New York, 200 miles northwest of Boston, 50 miles north of Troy, 30 miles south of Rutland and 50 miles northeast of Saratoga, on the Bennington & Rutland Railway, Midway between New York and Montreal. Through Drawing Room and Sleeping Cars from New York via Hudson River Railroad.

The EQUINOX HOUSE is located on the main street, a beautiful avenue shaded with elm and maple trees and with over three miles of marble sidewalks. It is 1,000 feet above the level of the sea and at the foot of Mt. Equinox, which rises 3,000 feet above the village.

A new system of water supply has been completed which will furnish the House with an abundance of soft water from Clear Spring, half way up the Equinox Mountain. New baths completed for the season of 1887. Music afternoon and evening.

DOGS NOT TAKEN.

MACHINERY.

I have the most complete stock and best arrangement for furnishing the best Machinery of all kinds at lowest prices. Being the Manufacturer's Agent for these goods, I am enabled to furnish the goods free in Jacksonville at the same prices they are sold at the shops at the North.
Among the manufacturers I represent are the Erie City Iron Works. J. T. Noy Manufacturing Co.,

Frank & Co., Emerson, Smith & Co.,
Akron Iron Work., Fell's Rivet Co.,
Fulton Steel Pulleys, Hofford & Co., G. J. Roberts & Co.,
Lidgerwood Manufacturing Co.,

and many others of the most prominent manufacturers of the United States. Those wanting machinery of any kind will find it to their interest to learn prices and examine my goods before ordering elsewhere.

ELLSWORTH,

—ON THE—

T. O. & A. AND T. A. & G. R. Rs.,

With its beautiful country, two Railroads, two Daily Mails, Telegraph and Express connections, make it the BEST LOCATED TOWN IN SOUTH FLORIDA. Large lots, well laid out, cheap and on easy terms, make it within reach of all. To parties who want to invest, or to locate, I would say, with its health, location, quality of soil, high rolling land and Railroad connections—being at the junction—I will leave it to the parties themselves to judge the future prospects. See this new town before locating elsewhere. It may pay for your trouble.

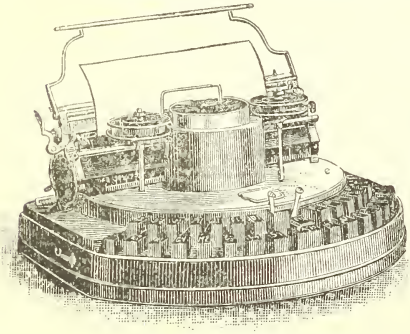
THE ONLY TYPE-WRITER

Awarded Gold Medal at New Orleans Exposition.



Constant use cannot and does not disturb its alignment.

The automatic hammer stroke gives absolutely uniform impression. It is unsurpassed in speed, and will write over 600 characters in one minute. Its type-wheels, comprising different styles of type, are interchangeable. It has only thirty-two keys, prints ninety characters, fourteen more than any other writing machine in the market. Will do any work capable of being done on any type writer, and much that no other can possibly be made to do. It manifolds well. Its open carriage ends admit paper of any width. It is light, portable, strong, simple and durable.

FIRE DEPARTMENT,—This was organized as a paid department July 16th, 1886, and consists of three Stations, viz: Central, Eastern and Western.

Central Station, which is also the general office, is located on Forsyth street, near Ocean, and has an apparatus consisting of a one two-horse Hook and Ladder, and one four-wheel single horse Hose Carriage. The foreman of the Hook and Ladder Co. is J. A. Brown; E. S. Griffith, driver; W. R. Williams, tillerman; M. J. Roberts, H. Turner, H. T. Suran, J. W. Saunders, laddermen. E, English, Hose Carriage, driver; W. B. Love, W. Schober, A. Dean, hosemen.

Eastern Station, foot of Adams. Two-wheel, single-horse, Hose. H. B. Butler, foreman; S. Foster, driver; Benjamin Robinson, son, Thomas Allen, hosemen.

Western Station, 113 Pine. Four-wheel, single-horse, Hose. George E. Will, foreman; W. H. Booker, driver; E. Moore, J. H. Montgomery, O. F. Love, hosemen.

This is one of the most efficient fire departments in the South, and has an equipment inferior to none. It is supplied with "Hale's Patent Swinging Harness," which enables them to harness and get in motion within from five to seven seconds. They have made a record that they may well be proud of, having at one time, October 14th, 1886, made a run from the general office to Bay c Cedar, within one minute, the time was kept by a stop watch, and is accurate. On another occasion an alarm was sent in from Julia c Caroline, one mile from engine house, within five minutes they were playing on the fire, and in six additional minutes the fire was extinguished. These are figures which not only the firemen, but the whole City of Jacksonville, may well be proud. The Gamble Fire Alarm is used; the signals being, one tap, wire out of order, and so arranged that the chief may know whether it is an east or west wire, and about what distance from office. Two taps signifies that the fire is extinguished. Three taps general alarm. The boxes are stationed and numbered as follows: 13, Bay c Cedar; 14, Bay c Hogan; 15, Bay c Pine; 16, Bay c Newnan; 17. Bay c Liberty; 22, Church c Cedar; 23, Hogan c Duval; 24, Pine c Ashley; 25, Newnan c Monroe; 26, Monroe c Washington; 33, Bay c Water; 34, Julia c Caroline; 35, State c Pine; 36, Beaver c Newnan; 37 Beaver c Liberty. The Commissioners are:—J. C. L'Engle, chairman; George R. Foster, secretary; D. G. Ambler, treas.; H. M. Fritot, John E. Hart, Gus Muller and William M. Ledwith, who are authorized to appoint the chief, who, in turn, appoints all other officers and members. The present chief is that veteran city father, Peter Jones, with H. M. Hooper, first assistant. All appointees retain their respective positions at the pleasure of the appointing power.

ST. AUGUSTINE,

[THE NEWPORT OF THE SOUTH.]

St. Augustine will always remain "ye ancient city," both in name and characteristics, in spite of the vast improvements and modern customs which are fast making inroads on the quiet lives of the descendents of the Spaniards.

Settled in 1512, this city has an identity unlike that of any in America. It is a genuine old Spanish or Moorish city, transplanted as it were from the ancient homes of the Castilians to the more modern shores of the New World, where, retaining all the peculiarities of an Eastern city, it has charms and associations that belong to the distant past.

This ancient city is thirty-six miles southeast of Jacksonville, fifteen east of Tocoi, and is situated on a peninsula between three salt-water rivers, viz: Matanzas, St. Sebastian and North. The site of the city is high and dry, which affords good drainage and, of necessity, excellent health. The St. John's Railway runs west to the St. John's River at Tocoi, where connection is made with the river steamers, and by steam ferry at West Tocoi with the Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Railway, and all points North and West.

The St. Augustine & Palatka Railway forms a new route from St. Augustine south to Palatka, where it connects with all railroads and steamboats at the latter named city. It lands its passengers at St. Augustine in its new depot, within a few minutes walk of the Plaza. This new road runs from a point on the St. John's Railway, about six miles west of St. Augustine direct to Palatka, distance about twenty-five miles. In front of the city is a land-locked bay in the foreground, while a mile distant can be seen the great Atlantic, the roar of whose surf can be distinctly heard as it breaks upon the beach.

Since the opening of the Jacksonville, St. Augustine & Halifax River Railway (which, by the way, is a Division of the Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Railway), between St. Augustine and Jacksonville, this city has materially increased in "fame and fortune." This road brings these cities within ninety minutes of each other, and has assisted very materially in the development of both. It is expected that it will be extended in the near future to that home of the orange, The Halifax, a country which, it is said, "for fertility and natural beauty is not equalled for the same distance in Florida."

St. Augustine has never aspired to be a commercial mart, but the railroad and canal enterprises thriving make it more of a market than it has heretofore enjoyed. It is not, however, as a business center that St. Augustine claims recognition. It does not compete with Jacksonville or other cities in a commercial sense; in fact, it is noticeable to the stranger that, unlike most other cities in East and South Florida, it is not jealous of any rival. Conscious of its superiority as a winter resort it has waited for its attractions to be known rather than thrusting itself upon the public's notice. During the past two years there has been a great movement forward. Capitalists are investing millions here.

In addition to the St. Augustine, Magnolia, The Florida, Casa-Monica, The St. George, Ocean View and other hotels which contribute so much toward the success of St. Augustine as a winter resort, the Hotel San Marco, completed in 1885, and the Hotel Ponce de Leon, to be opened next season, will still further emphasize the supremacy of St. Augustine. When the Hotel San Marco opened its doors it was "the talk of the town," but the Hotel Ponce de Leon is to eclipse all former efforts in hotel building in the South. It is now being built of modern coquina and, together with the grounds and furnishings, will cost, when completed, about $3,000,000. The great public knows but little of the improvements going on here. The following is from the New York Tribune of Nov. 23, '86, and will be read with interest. It sounds more like the tales of the Arabian knights than a statement of facts:

"Americans have a lesson taught them in work going on now in Florida's most beautiful social centre, St. Augustine. A few years ago, after years spent in rambling in foreign countries, there came to St. Augustine a mild-mannered, slender, gray-haired man (Mr. Franklin W. Smith, of Boston), whose talent found here the material and the true surroundings for its exercise. From sketches of the most minute and elaborate details of the Alhambra and other Moorish places in Spain, Tangiers and Algiers, this gentleman erected a residence in St. Augustine that is emphatically a work of refined Oriental art. The material used in the construction is beach sand, small shells and cement, making a beautiful concrete as durable as granite. It color it is a light gray, just about the tint of the moss drapery of the live oaks. The ingredients were mixed with water into a mass, then carried in hods and poured into the matrix of the rising walls. Villa Zorayda, as this unique creation is named, is a notable building, appropriate to the climate of Florida; and so graceful, airy, harmonious, and elegant that it has been pronounced the most beautiful residence in America. Above the front entrance is the inscription in Arabic: Wa la ghalic ill-allah—"There is no conquerer but God." Following this example, buildings are now in progress and still others planned that are Spanish or Moorish in every detail. These edifices are not innovations, but harmonize with the mellow tone of the one and two hundred years old Spanish buildings, narrow streets and general quaint air of the ancient city by the sea.

A gentleman of New York, Mr. H. M. Flager, after purchasing the most desirable site for the purpose in the city of St. Augustine, is erecting a Spanish palace which it is desecration to call a hotel. However, the name Ponce de Leon, is some restitution. This superb and costly structure measures 350 feet on St. Augustine's principal avenue and 450 on Tolomato street. The architecture is purely Spanish, from the tall towers and overhanging tile roof to the court and arcades. Shell concrete is the material, with arches, window-caps and trimmings of deep red brick and cornices and finials of terra-cotta the same in hue. The building towers upward from its court, arcade and four wings to a central dome flanked by two large towers whose height is 140 feet. The building is now receiving its red tabular-tile roof. The rich terra-cotta ornaments, niches, figures, shields, columns, caps and bulustrades are even richer in effect than the promise of the drawings. The court is 150 feet square and is completely inclosed in front by the arcade of ornate columned arches stretching from wing to wing, east and west. Entering it through an archway of terra-cotta and mosaic you will find yourself in a tropical garden surrounded by a stone portico fourteen feet wide, with rooms opening thereon. Opposite the entrance of the court is a still more imposing and more highly decorated entrance leading to the rotunda, which is fifty-four by eighty feet and four stories in height. The encircling balconies are upheld by rows of columns, and the effect of the perspective, made up of columns, arches and galleries, is fascinating. A flight of marble steps faces you, leading to the dining-room, an apartment 150 by 68 feet, with circular ends of glass opening on wide balconies. The walls spring up into a graceful vaulting ceiling, to be appropriately frescoed. This artistic banqueting hall will seat 700 guests, and connecting with it are private dining rooms and one for children. The parlors are a series of rooms with intersecting columns that give cosey seclusion and a hint of beauty-haunted nooks. There will be accommodations for 600 guests in the 450 bed-rooms, which are arranged so as to form suites, including private hall, parlors, bedroom, bath and dressing room, all having direct light and ventilation. Of course there are offices, reading-rooms, elevators, steam heat, electric light and other conveniences not necessary to mention.

But the owner does not stop here in his work. The Ponce de Leon faces upon the avenue "Alameda," so called after the most elegant promenade in Spanish cities. Directly across the Alameda will be erected the "Alcazar."

The façade of this unique structure will be reproduced from the Alcazar of Seville, while the large interior court will be surrounded by arcades on which open, as in the Palais Royal, bazaars, restaurants, reading and billiard rooms, etc., with bowling alleys, baths and tennis court beyond. The dimensions of the first section will will be 200 by 400 feet, approximately, with future extension upon land beyond held for the purpose. Above will be, as in the Palais Royal, two stories of apartments with accomodations for bachelors and little corteries who are fond of European modes of life and economy. These can take apartments with meals served therein or in the restaurants beneath at pleasure. The Alacazar and the Hotel Casa-Monica in this way will accomdate the overflow of guests from the Ponce de Leon.

And yet the whole is not told. Facing on the grand avenue Alameda is to be the Casa Monica—"House Mother of St. Augustine," just next door neighbor to the Alcazar and diagonally opposite the Ponce de Leon. A section of 100 feet range is completed, and the remainder will follow. The Casa Monica, together with Villa Zorayda, and the other side of the Alcazar, and the Ponce de Leon and Alcazar form a group of buildings unequalled in any country as an architectural illustration of style foreign to itself. Going up the Alameda from the plaza you pass first Casa Monica on your left; crossing Tolomato street, you have on your right the Ponce de Leon with an Alcazar opposite and Villa Zorayda just beyond it. Casa Monica is to be Spanish with Moorish motifs. For instance the grand entrance will be by a gateway, one tower of which is eighty feet in height, modelled from the Moorish gateway, Puerta del sol, at Toledo, Spain. The façade fronts on the Alameda and Cordova street, a distance of 450 feet. This group of buildings will be a notable monument to art in architecture. And there is more to tell, of gardens beyond the Ponce deLeon, of avenues over-arched by orange trees in bearing; of grassy plots with huge tropical plants; of costly and exquisite interior decorations and hangings."

One of the entrances to the city is under an extended archway of trees, green with tropical luxuriance, which impresses the stranger most favorably. The perfume from the innumerable orange and rose trees is not the least enjoyable of the many attractions here. The streets vary from 10 to 18 feet wide, and the houses are mostly of two stories, with the upper projecting over the street. Fine facilities are offered for yachting—a yacht club being one of the institutions of the city. One of the principal points on a yachting excursion is the light house situated at the mouth of the harbor. It is 70 feet high, exclusive of the lantern, and shows a fixed light. Fish and game are abundant. An excellent free library and club houses afford facilities for enjoyment to the less active visitors.

There is a remarkable freedom from malaria, and the almost perfect climate makes it a resort for both summer and winter. The objects of interest in St. Augustine are many

For years it has been the custom in guide books to describe in detail the Sea Wall, Cathedral, Barracks, Military Burying Ground, Plaza de la Constitution, Fort Marion, Convents, City Gates, etc., etc. These descriptions have become thread-bare. It better remains for the tourist to visit them in order to fully comprehend. Genovar's Opera House, opened this season, fills a void in the amusement world that has long been felt. It is a credit to its owner, Mr. Bartola Genovar; an honor to the city, and a pride of the manager, Mr. Ralph Bell, the well-known actor. In the rear of and connected with the Opera House is an attractive Café, known as Abbott's.

THE HOTELS.—There are in round numbes fifteen hotels here. Among which may be mentioned the Carleton Hotel, W. M. Teahen, proprietor; situated on St. George street near the Opera House, Post Office, and Plaza. Mr. Teahen was formerly proprietor of the Teahen House in Sanford, Florida.

Cleaveland House.—A. M. Blake, proprietor. Is situated in the center of the city, on the corner of St. George and Cuna streets. Mr. Blake is also proprietor of the Island House on Long Island, Lake Winnipesseogee, N. H., a summer hotel.

Florida House.—St. George corner Treasury. This hotel is under a new management. Mr. Charles F. Beck, proprietor. It has been enlarged, greatly improved in the way of sanitary arrangements, painted inside and out, and new mattresses and furniture supplied. The cuisine is said to be of the best.

Hernandez House.—Mrs. J. V. Hernandez, proprietress. Charlotte street near the Plaza. No hotel in the city is better known than this. Mrs. Hernandez is also proprietoress of the Hernandez Cottage, Lake Mahopac, N. Y.

Hotel San Marco.—One of the largest and most elegant in the city.

Ocean View Hotel.—Bay street facing the Sea Wall. Mr. W. S. M. Pinkham, proprietor. Open the year round

St. Augustine Hotel.—Captain Edward S. Vaill, proprietor; ably seconded by his son, Mr. Edgard G. Vaill. This hotel is the pioneer of all the larger and more elegant hotels here, and fully maintains its prestage. It overlooks the bay, the ocean, and the Plaza, and occupies the most commanding and central situation in the city. Its daily concerts by the U. S. Artillery Band in the Plaza are much appreciated by the numerous guests.

The Magnolia.—Wm. W. Palmer, proprietor. Ranks among the best of the larger hotels, and some prefer it to all others.

The St. George.—Is a select family hotel. St. George street opposite the Plaza. Charles D. Tyler, proprietor. It was formerly known as The Tyler House. It has been enlarged to 100 rooms and has baths, gas, electric bells, billiard parlors, etc., etc., and is a first-class home for families.

The Ponce de Leon.—A detailed description will be found above.

POPULATION.—St. Augustine having been dormant for a century or more has at last awakened to its possibilities and, from a population in January, 1886, of 4,352, it has increased to 6,248 in January, 1887.

A coterie of millionaires is invading this city with their social and financial influence, and soon, if not already, it will be in "good form" to have not only a summer villa at Newport, but a winter home at St. Augustine.

WEBB'S FLORIDA.

Historical, Industrial and Biographical

By WANTON S. WEBB.

Contains a general review of the State, a detailed account of each County, its boundary, water courses, railroads, topography, soil, productions, prices of lands, climate, health, natural fertilizers, fish, game, stock raising, lumber, natural springs; how, when and where to settle; a description of each city, village and country post office in Florida, down to 1885. The work is 8x12 inches in size, contains over two hundred large double column pages of solid printed matter, and over one hundred illustrations of Florida scenery, some full page, the whole printed on toned paper, with an elegant illustrated cover, designed by Brannan. The weight of the book is one and a half pounds, and it will be sent to any part of the world postpaid, on the receipt of ONE DOLLAR, addressed

PALATKA.

[THE GEM CITY.]

This is more distinctively a city of brick, so far as the business centre is concerned, than any city in Florida, if we may except Jacksonville. The visitor can more readily appreciate the appellation, "The Gem City," when he walks the streets and notes the fine brick business blocks, the well paved sidewalks, and the neatness and elegance of the surroundings. Business here seems to be done with a system, a regularity and quietness unlike most business marts. Here are found large brick stores and storehouses, where is located the heavy hardware and grain trade; for Palatka is one of the natural distributing points for the whole of South Florida, and owns her own railroad—The Florida Southern—which directly and indirectly reaches all the growing cities south as far as Charlotte Harbor and Tampa. Over this road, which is called the Orange Belt Route, it is said that Pullman cars run one hundred miles further south than on any road in the United States. A line of ocean steamships runs at regular intervals to Charleston, S. C., and there are river steamboats connecting with all points on the St. Johns and Ocklawaha rivers.

St. Johns & Halifax River Railroad runs from Rolleston, nearly opposite Palatka, to Ormond on the Halifax. A ferryboat runs at regular intervals between Palatka and Rolleston, connecting with this road. The Jacksonville Morning News says: "The completion of the White road, so called, to the Halifax River brings that fertile and healthful region into close association with the outer world and makes possible a future for it which its merits deserve. The various communities along the Halifax are exceptionally intelligent and enterprising, and now that it has a railway terminus, there is little doubt that the region will become exceedingly populous and abundantly wealthy." All of which will react to the benefit of Palatka.

The growth of Palatka, while not rapid, is substantial. It was settled in 1821, first as a trading post, and later it was a U. S. Military station, which was a base of operations during the Seminole War. Many of the great military men were at one time here, and some, who are now prominent, gained their first experience in the Seminole War. Generals Scott, Taylor and Gaines once had their headquarters here. General Sherman was located here as lieutenant, also Gen. Casey. The two last mentioned, in a recent visit, recognized several old landmarks despite the great improvements since made.

Palatka is located on the west bank of the St. Johns, 75 miles by the windings of the river and 56 miles by rail south of Jacksonville, 50 east of Gainesville and 68 north of Sanford. The city is built on a fine elevation, the slope to the river affording natural wharfage for the numerous steam and sailing craft which furnish abundant transportation facilities. The streets are regularly laid out, and both in the business and residence quarters lined with orange trees loaded with fruit or fragrant blossoms. During the season large shipments of oranges are made from this point. A dozen steamers stop at the wharves during the day, and the Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Railway affords rapid communication with Jacksonville and Sanford, to which latter named city this road was, in '85, completed. The business houses are large and well fitted up, the churches and halls spacious, and many of the residences surrounded by beautiful grounds, notable among which is the newly finished residence of Hon. Sherman Conant, general manager of the Florida Southern Railway.

During the year 1886, the St. Augustine & Palatka Railway was opened, forming an air line road between Palatka and St. Augustine. It runs from Sunny Point, a fine bluff with deep water, directly opposite Palatka, 24 miles to a point on the St. Johns Railway of Florida, about six miles west of St. Augustine. It is standard guage and adds another laurel to Palatka's well won wreath. It has been said that "it is the unexpected that happens," so it is possible that St. Augustine, with its seventeen feet of water at high tide may after all, with this connecting link of railroad, be the seaport of Palatka and Southern Florida. The central office of this road is in the Astor block, Jacksonville, and Major Richard McLaughlin is president of the company which owns it.

One of the attractive features of this city is The New Putnam House, which was built last season and opened by Mr. Oscar G. Barron, that well known and long established White Mountain Hotel proprietor, who continues as proprietor of the New Putnam. It is 234 feet in front with an L 281 feet long, three stories in height. There is another L 181 feet in length. The dining room is 120x42 feet and open wood fire places are in all the public rooms and many of the parlors and chambers. There are elevators, steam heat, electric lights, billiard halls, artesian wells, hot and cold water, sulphur and other baths, a tropical garden in the interior court, around which the hotel is built and where fountains lend an enchantment to the scene.

Then there is a brick structure, the Hotel Phœnix, opened the year round, by Smith & Edwards, with Capt. Joe Smith as manager, and who does not know "Capt. Joe?"

The Carlton, by Mr. Andrew Shelley, another large hotel.

Palatka has a daily paper, The Palatka Daily News, which also issues a weekly edition; The Palatka Herald; The Southern Sun and The Florida Cultivator.

The people of Palatka believe and have an abiding faith in the Gem City. They are not so demonstrative as some other cities, but they work together and in unison for the general good. They build their own churches, their own hotels, support well their newspapers, build their own railroads, have good bank accounts, entertain royally, and whatever they do they do quietly and successfully.

GAINESVILLE.

[THE CENTRAL CITY.]

Population 1886, 3,832—1887, 5,088.

The Alachua country was discovered in the early part of the present century by the agents of a Havana merchant, Don Fernando de la Maza Arredondo, who were led here by the stories told by the Indians of a fertile country, many Indian villages, and a river that fell into a chasm in the earth and disappeared. This chasm the Indians called a-la-chu-a, meaning "big jug," which exists to this day, and is the general receptacle for a number of streams which are continually flowing therein but have no perceptible outlet. In the very center of, what has since become known, as the Arredondo, Grant, the county of Alachua was formed, with Newnanville as the seat of the government, which, however, was later removed to Gainesville where it remains.

This inland city, with a population of 5,088 occupies a nearly central position in the county of which it is the county-seat, as also an aspirant as the future capital of Florida. It is situated on a beautiful elevation almost semi-distant from the Gulf and Atlantic, on the famous water shed which is claimed to be the most healthy locality in the State, and is at the junction of the railroad belonging to the Florida Railway & Navigation Company, the Florida Southern Railway, and a branch of the Savannah, Florida & Western Railway, on what is called a "Black Jack" (stunted red oak) ridge, on account of the well-known healthfulness and purity of the water of such localities. The soil is a deep bed of Silica, underlaid with pipe clay at a depth varying from two to twenty feet. All over the city there are large orange trees, grapes, fine orange and pecan nurseries, varieties of fruit trees, strawberries, flowers, gardens of vegetables in profusion, and melons of extraordinary size, rare plants, etc.

Gainesville is 50 miles by rail west of Palatka, and 75 in a southwesterly direction from Jacksonville. A disastrous fire a few months ago destroyed an entire block on the south side of the square. While this was of immediate loss to different individuals, it will prove a lasting benefit to the city, for already a number of brick buildings are nearing completion and in a very short time it will all be covered by solid brick blocks. The pride of Alachua County, is the new brick Court House completed in December, 1885. It is built in the Renaissance style of architecture, is fire proof, cost $50,000, and is surmounted by a public clock which tolls out the hours of morning, noon and night to the constantly increasing inhabitants of this substantial city. The view from the dome is extended, taking in the undulating surface of thousands of acres of cotton fields and rich vegetable and fruit gardens which surround the city and contribute so much to its "fame and fortune." Interspersed can be seen an occasional lake, a happy home half buried in an orange grove, the whole making a picture well worth a journey to the dome to enjoy. Gainesville vies with Lake City in being a market for the celebrated Sea Island Cotton, in the purchase and ginning of which there is a large amount of capital employed ; several of the principal streets have already been macadamized, and it is the intention to have all the thoroughfares similarly improved. The educational advantages of this city are second to none if not superior to any point in Florida.

Conspicuous among several of its educational institutions is the East Florida Seminary, State Normal School and Military Institute. A new public graded school building has been completed during the past year, which is like all other buildings recently erected here—a credit to the city. In addition to the Court House, there is a new bank building of Messrs. H. F. Dutton & Co., bankers, built of pressed brick, in 1885, and one of the most elegant buildings for the purposes intended to be found in Florida. Among other brick blocks recently erected may be mentioned those belonging to Endel Bros., General John Varnum, J. Simonson, W. Porter, and numerous others—all on the public square—which add much to the beauty and convenience of that thoroughfare.

The importance of Gainesville as a railroad, commercial and educational center, and as a desirable place of business and residence, is attracting general attention.

One of the attractions of Gainesville is Simonson's Opera House, Skating rink, Artesian Well, and Bathing Establishment, the most complete combination of the kind in the South. The water is said to be a speciffc for chronic diarrhœa, kidney diseases, bronchial affections, old sores, &c., and has sulphur, iron, magnesium and alum qualities.

The United States Land Office is situated here where all the lands in Florida, belonging to the United States, are entered.

Up to a comparatively brief period Gainesville had the reputation of being a slow, conservative city, but its recent growth and enterprise is being recognized generally.

ORLANDO.

[THE PHENOMENAL CITY.]

Population 1886, 3,528; 1887, 5,092.

This phenomenal city is situated in the center of a great orange district on the South Florida Railroad, 22 miles southwest of Sanford, and 93 miles from Tampa, at the junction of the Tavares, Orlando and Atlantic Railroad with the South Florida. Its former name was Fort Gatlin, and as far back as 1856, it became the county seat of Orange county. It was settled by Hon. J. G. Spear, who donated four acres to the town for the site of the Court House, which was soon after built. The population in 1884 was estimated at 1,638. In Jan., 1886, it was 3,528; at present it is 5,092. Orlando is situated on the apex of the peninsula, 106 feet above Lake Monroe, the water on one side flowing into the Gulf of Mexico, on the other into the Atlantic Ocean. Whatever way one may drive, a beautiful lake forms a part of the landscape, around which, and sloping to the sandy beaches, are geometrically arranged orange groves laden with golden fruit. The T. O. & A. Railroad already spoken of, was opened to the public in June, 1885. It is a broad gauge road, 32 miles in length and connects at Tavares with the Florida Railway and Navigation Company's system of roads, making direct communication with the great north and west. Pullman cars from any city can come direct to Orlando, and soon it is expected they can reach the Indian River country on the Atlantic coast.

During the past year the South Florida Railroad has adopted the standard guage, enabling solid trains to run between Jacksonville and Tampa. The number of brick buildings which have been erected here during the past year exceeds that of any city in the State outside of Jacksonville. They are particularly noticeable for their solidity and fine architectural appearance. The Armory building, which has for its first floor the public market is one of the finest brick structures in the State. Orlando is fast becoming the Railroad Center of South Florida. The roads projected and in process of building, which are owned and controlled by Orlando men, are "too numerous to mention." They run here and there and all towards and centering at Orlando. See pages 497 and 498. Anticipating the certainty of a large city in the near future these men are not only building for this but for other generations. Enterprises are conducted to last not for a day but for a century. Street railways, electric lights, telephones, sewerage, well graded and paved streets are receiving the attention of the people. They work together, which is a large factor in Orlando's success. Orlando is also a legal center, there being no less than thirty-seven lawyers, among whom are some of the brightest legal lights in the South.

There is a well-equipped fire department; six churches for the whites and three for the colored people; two Banks, a Board of Trade, several secret societies, a Telephone Exchange, two first-class weekly newspapers, The Orange County Report, Mahlon Gore, editor; The South Florida Sentinel, Lahmer C. Vaughan, editor; The Orlando Daily Record, Dolph Edwards, editor. If there is one thing more than another that Orlando is proud of, it is the newspapers. They reflect the enterprise of the people, and are certainly well edited, well printed, and are sent out to the world with the emphasizing remark: "These indicate the kind of a city we live in." The Orlando Y. M. C. A. issue a monthly paper called The Bulletin.

The Orlando Band took the first prize at a Band contest in Jacksonville last Spring.

There is a Gas and Electric Light Co., a Foundry and Machine Co., a Fruit Preserving Co., an Ice Manufacturing Co., a Skating Rink, an Opera House, a Street Railway Co., and seven railroads either in operation, surveyed or projected. The history of this city, its rise and progress is not only an example for others, an illustration of what enterprise, brains and muscle will do in a few short years, but is another proof that earnest effort is sure to win success. The words of Carlysle describe more fittingly the people of Orlando: "Shut their industry out from one career and it will force itself into another. Dry up twenty sources of their prosperity and they will open twenty more. They have a perseverance which never languishes and when they say 'well try' the thing is done."

KISSIMMEE.

[THE TROPICAL CITY.]

Population 1886, 782; 1887, 1,384.

"Eureka! I have found it!" expresses the idea of the tired tourist as he leaves the train here. The picture which greets his eye is one

> He long had sought,
> And moaned because
> He found it not.

Leading from the railroad platform, in front of the Tropical Hotel, is a wide walk to its hospitable entrance. Tall trees, roses, flowers and tropical shrubbery ornament the hotel grounds, and from the wide piazzas is seen Lake Tohopekaliga, with its blue, sparkling waters, and scenes of lovely islands, the whole forming a panorama of southern scenery not easily forgotten. To write of The Tropical is to describe the entrance to the city, for it is its gate—the Gibralter, as it were, of Kissimmee—at which the traveler should enter. Through it and beyond is a thriving city, which in 1882 existed only in name. Broadway, the main business thoroughfare, is about one hundred feet in width, and is lined on either side with new buildings of rich architectural designs; prominent among which is the Kissimmee City Bank and the business office and residence of Mr. William Cannon, the leading real estate dealer of Kissimmee.

It is only a few years since that this section was the favorite camping ground of the historical Seminole. Their wigwams were the only habitations to be seen around the shores of the lakes, and white settlers were few and far between. Where the town now stands warriors were wont to assemble in council, and the country is still full of relics which can not fail to prove interesting to pilgrims in this sunny clime.

Later on, civilization advanced its outposts, and the savage sought other fields. A few adventurous settlers erected houses, but it was not until some years later that the advantages of the location for a town became known; but when it was realized that, at no distant day, this point would become a distributing centre for one of the largest and most fertile tracts of country in the whole State, settlers began to pour in, and it was not long until the solitude was banished forever.

Notwithstanding that the Seminoles have been pushed one hundred or more miles south of this point, they have not lost their affection for it, but make periodical excursions to this spot in their dug-out canoes, bringing hides, skins, furs, venison, &c., to exchange for Wyoming (whiskey), trinkets, &c., &c. The writer, in November, '86, saw a number of them enjoying the hospitality of the whites in their own peculiar way.

Kissimmee is situated on the South Florida Railroad, 40 miles south of Sanford, in the southern portion of Orange county, at the head of a chain of lakes and on the northern shore of Lake Tohopekaliga. Kissimmee is an Indian name meaning "long water," and is the child of the Okeechobee Drainage Co., for through its efforts that city made its advent in the list of enterprising cities of South Florida, and its continued efforts will place Kissimmee high up on the list of populous cities in the State, for it is and always will be the metropolis of all that region of 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 of acres which lie tributary to the chain of lakes and canals. South from this point the lands bordering the lakes, as well as the territory along the Kissimmee River, are notably the richest in the State, and, when improved, will yield remunerative crops of sugar cane, rice, corn, jute, sisal hemp, etc.

The rich bottom lands are superior to those of Louisiana for the cultivation of sugar cane.

Steamers make regular trips from Kissimmee to the Gulf of Mexico, a distance of 250 miles or more.

It may justly be said that this city is the border line of civilization, for it is here that one catches a view of the Indian, and knows something of the great undiscovered country, "The Everglades" beyond.

Narcoossee, an English settlement, is a few miles distant, accessable by land or water, where are domiciled a large and successful colony from the mother country. They make Kissimmee their headquarters for business, banking, &c., and are represented here by Messrs. Fell & Davidson.

There are two railroads in process of construction, which are to terminate at Kissimmee. The Florida Midland, which starts at Lake Jessup, crossing the South Florida at Altamont, running on to Apopka, crossing the Tavares, Orlando and Atlantic at that point, thence down the east side of Lake Butler to Kissimmee.

The other is to run from Tavares, down the west side of Lake Apopka, thence along the west side of Lake Butler to Kissimmee.

Both of these roads are expected to be completed and in running order during the present winter.

The growth of Kissimmee is a sure indication of its success. It has doubled its population in one year. The following poem from the pen of that gifted Flordian, the Hon. Columbus Drew, is in keeping with the romantic history of the city and a most suitable ending to this sketch :

KISSIMMEE.

A Briton who came with the banners of Spain,
A knight, with Melendez, across the blue main,
Here landed with him on Seloy's palmy shore,
Where the waves of Matanzas sang sadly of yore.
Scarce the rampart was built on the verge of the lea,
Ere he mounted his charger and rode from the sea.
He came to a river, as strange and as wild
As the vision he met there, a wondering child
Of the forest, a woman, who never before
Saw a knight in his armor or plume that he wore.
The wonder was pleasant—he shared it with her,
And his blood mounted high, like his steed from the spur,
Nor her low-falling lashes nor brownness of skin
Could hide the soft tell-tale of blushes within.
One language was spoken, the language of bliss ;
The knight turned to leave, saying "give me a kiss";
And the maiden, all sad, left the knight from the sea,
And spoke a new tongue, "Kiss-him-me ! Kiss-him-mee !"
And the breezes that wafted the cry where they met
Settled down on the river, and whisper it yet.

KISSIMMEE

is located on the South Florida Railroad in the southern portion of Orange County, and is beautifully situated at the head of Lake Tohopekaliga, and is the head of navigation to the Gulf of Mexico. This lake is surrounded by fertile lands and is studded with a number of lovely islands. There is no prettier body of water in the whole State, and at this point the tourist, pleasure seeker, and invalid, will find a spot where nature continually wears her sunniest smiles, and where not only health but all kinds of enjoyment can be found. Health-giving pine woods, summer skies, and a magnificent sheet of water, boating, fishing, hunting, hard drives across the prairies, etc., are some of the things which enable the visitor to pass the time pleasantly.

A number of years ago, this was a favorite spot with the Seminole Indians, and the country is filled with relics. These Indians—what has been left of them—have moved their wigwams to fields farther south, where civilization and its influences will not be in such close proximity to them. Occasionally small bands of them come to Kissimmee to do their trading, and dispose of their handiwork

The town has a frontage upon the lake of over a mile, and has a natural drainage surpassed by no other town in the State, and the climate is perfectly delightful the year 'round.

The Methodists, Baptists, and Presbyterians have commodious and comfortable churches, and it is almost needless to say that they are all well attended. Kissimmee has a good, first-class public school, and is the only town in the county in which the school building is owned by the corporation. The streets and boulevards are broad and graded, and ample hotel accommodations are provided for all who may desire to come. No other spot in Florida offers to the visitor the same number of inducements. This point is also the headquarters for the Okeechobee Drainage Company's large fleet of dredges, and their immense work is directed from this point. After your arrival at Kissimmee, you will be able to form some idea of the richness of these reclaimed lands, and see for yourself how prolifically they yield with a very small amount of labor. Lands can be purchased by people desirous of settling or erecting winter residences at very reasonable figures, but you must bear in mind that the rapidity with which this section of country is being settled is rapidly increasing the values.

KISSIMMEE LAND AGENCY

This Agency covers the entire middle portion of South Florida, known as the

KISSIMMEE VALLEY,

Which is the field of the great Drainage Operations, and includes the lands of the

Kissimmee Land Company, South Florida Railroad Company,

Florida Land and Improvement Co. A. & G. C., C. & Okeechobee Land Co

And contains more than

THREE MILLION ACRES

Of the most fertile and valuable lands in Florida, of every variety and in any quantity. These lands are located in th Lake Regions of

ORANGE, POLK, BREVARD, MANATEE AND MONROE COUNTIES,

And are adapted to the cultivation of Oranges, Limes, Lemons, Pineapples, Cocoanuts, Guavas, Sapadilloes, Mangoes, Avocado Pears, Dates, Figs, &c., as well as Sugar Cane, Rice and every variety of Early Vegetables and Small Fruits.

The consolidation of the lands of the above named great Land Companies in one agency, facilitates the selectio of large tracts for

to which some portions are peculiarly adapted. These lands include all varieties of upland and lowland—high, rollin lands upon whose grassy slopes gigantic pines have reared their stately heads; long, undulating avenues with thei rich carpet of green, and across the surface of which sunshine and shadow play hide and seek; pretty little clear wate lakes, the unruffled surface of which is only disturbed by the sporting of fish in the sunshine; add to this the darl green leaves of an occasional orange grove looming up in the distance, and you have a picture that once seen will neve be forgotten. All correspondence should be addressed to

ANDREW J. ROSE, AGENT.

RICHEST, MOST PRODUCTIVE, BEST SITUATED AND BEST DRAINED GARDEN LAND IN FLORIDA.

From the four million acres of land bought by Mr. Disston, the lands owned by the St. Cloud Co. were selected as being the best. The selection was made by Capt. R. E. Rose, for several years the superintendent of the Okeechobee Co., at Kissimmee City, and now the president of the St. Cloud Co. No man has a more thorough knowledge of the country than he, and the large crops of Rice, Cabbage, Tomatoes, Cucumbers, Bananas, Strawberries and other vegetables and fruits raised on the St. Cloud farm have fully justified the wisdom of his selection. The lands are situated on Lake East Tohopekaliga, about six miles from Kissimmee, and are thoroughly drained by the canal connecting Lake Tohopekaliga and East Lake, on both sides of which the lands of the Company are situated.

Any information regarding the condition of the lands, crops raised, prices, etc., will be cheerfully afforded.

KISSIMMEE CITY, FLA.

FERNANDINA.

[THE ISLAND CITY.]

Population, 4,224.

Few cities in the State can offer the same advantages to settlers, builders, wholesale merchants, manufacturers, or any one in the pursuit of health and wealth as Ferdandina, the county seat of Nassau County. This City is situated on Amelia Island, at the northeast corner of Florida, thirty-three miles by rail from Jacksonville. It lies on the south bank of the St. Mary's River, which stream divides this county from Georgia.

Amelia Island is about twenty-two miles long, by an average width of two miles, being separated from the mainland by a narrow river of the same name. The island presents a somewhat rugged surface, the soil being sandy, mixed with shells, except in the low or swampy portions, where the land is much richer. The climate here is superb, being protected in winter from severe frosts by the surrounding water, and enjoying delightful sea breezes in summer.

One of the principal attractions of Fernandina is its magnificent sea-beach, which is reached from the city by a pleasant drive of two miles along a smooth shell road. For about twenty miles, in an almost straight line, the beach presents a hard-beaten, smooth surface, making it one of the finest drives in America.

The harbor here is one of the finest on the South Atlantic coast, being roomy enough to accommodate the fleets of all the great powers of the world at one time. There are nineteen feet of water on the bar at high tide. From this port are shipped immense quantities of naval stores and lumber to Europe, South America, and other parts of the world.

The city is regularly laid out, fronting on Cumberland Sound and Amelia River, with fine broad avenues running parallel and at right angles with each other, the central street being called Centre, and the streets running parallel to it being lettered, while those crossing it at right angles, but parallel with the harbor, are numbered.

Fernandina has made wonderful progress during the past year or two. Solid brick blocks have taken the place of ricketty wooden buildings, and every thing has a substantial appearance. There are a number of handsome residences and neat church edifices.

The Florida Town Improvement Company has recently placed upon the market vast quantities of land, city lots, etc., which for a number of years have not been offered for sale, and they are now offering the most liberal terms to all, and especially to actual settlers, or those desirous of building. Mr. Samuel A. Swann, the resident manager of the Company, has done much to promote the interests of the city, by liberal business transactions and shrewd management of the company's business, which has resulted in the mutual benefit of all concerned.

The population of the place, as found by Webb's Directory Corps, is 4,224, a large increase over any previous year.

The city owes its importance not only to its splendid harbor, but it is also the northeastern terminus of two important lines of railway, viz: The Florida Railway & Navigation Company, and a branch of the same Company; the Fernandina and Jacksonville Railroad. These roads are both under one management, the main office being at Jacksonville in the company's new building, Bay corner of Julia.

Fernandina is not lacking in hotel accommodations, there being some of the finest hostelries in the State here. The Egmont is under the proprietorship of Mr. William P. Davis, a well known and long established host. There is a lovely Palmetto Park in front of the Egmont, carpeted with perennial green, which is the favorite croquet, cricket and bowling grounds of the guests. The hotel is superior in every appointment. Mr. Davis is also proprietor of the Pavilion Hotel at Gloucester, Mass., a favorite summer resort. The Mansion House is convenient to the business, post-office, depots and landings. Guests of the house always meet with excellent treatment and a good bill of fare. There is a solid, home-like comfort about the place which travelers always appreciate. There are also the Florida House, the Tourists' Hotel, and numerous boarding houses.

The Florida Mirror, a live, newsy family paper, is edited by Major George F. Fairbanks, the eminent Florida historian.

Fernandina is the Florida terminus of the Mallory Line of Steamships, running between this point and New York. This line has recently completed a new wharf at the foot of Centre street, and passengers from the F. R. & N. Co.'s road have but to step from the train on to the gangway of the steamer, which adds much to their convenience. Besides the Mallory, there may be mentioned the Clyde Line, between New York and Jacksonville, which calls at Fernandina, and the People's Independent Line to Brunswick, Ga., and other local lines.

Lumbering, the manufacture of palmetto and palm-fibre, and the railroad and steamer lines constitute the main industries. But there is no better point in Florida for the establishment of a wholesale trade for the interior, in such articles as hay, grain, fertilizers, farm supplies, builders' materials, &c. It is, also, an excellent point for the establishment of various manufactories—cotton mills, oil mills, door, sash and blind factories. Such industries would not fail of returning a most lucrative compensation.

SANFORD.

[THE GATE CITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA.]

Population 1886, 2,052; 1887, 2,384,

Sanford is delightfully situated on the west bank of Lake Monroe, head waters of the St. Johns River for large steamers, and is one of the most important towns of South Florida. It is 206 miles by the windings of the river and in a straight line 110 miles, and via Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Railway 125 miles south of Jacksonville.

THE RAILROADS.—Sanford is also the northern terminus of the South Florida Railroad to Tampa on the Gulf; distance 115 miles. The Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Railway, which was opened from Jacksonville to Palatka on the west bank of the St. Johns, March 6, 1884, was completed to Sanford and Titusville, on the Indian River, in 1885, making a direct all-rail route, not only from Jacksonville, but all the cities of the north and west. It makes direct connection at Sanford with the South Florida Railroad, through to Tampa, and it is claimed forms not only 24 miles the shortest, but some three hours the quickest line to Tampa, Key West and Havana. These roads are broad gauge, built in the most substantial manner throughout, and are not excelled by any line in the country in their entire equipment. Buffet parlor cars are run between Jacksonville, Sanford and Tampa, and the journey consumes only a few hours. A branch of the South Florida Railroad has been completed to Oviedo. The Sanford & Lake Eustis R. R., and the Orange Belt R. R., are in process of construction. A Union Depot is in contemplation and is very much needed, as five railroads place Sanford in direct and rapid communication with a large extent of country. The South Florida Railroad is the pioneer railroad of South Florida, and its success was emphasized recently on its change from a narrow to standard gauge, over which the "Fast Mail" goes from New York to Havana. The tourist in traveling over this road will note the even and wide road bed, the fine equipment and fast time made. Mr. B. R. Swoope, the Superintendent, manages this road by telegraph from his office in Sanford, and the traveler feels the influence of his masterly hand.

THE STEAMERS.—There are two lines of steamers plying the St. Johns River between this point and Jacksonville: The DeBary-Baya Merchants' Line and The People's Line. There is also a line to Rockledge, on the Indian River.

A COMPLETE SYSTEM OF WATER WORKS supplies the town with an adequate supply of good, clear water. The reservoir, containing 40 acres, is 2¾ miles from the city. There is an excellent fire department.

THE LOCATION.—The city of Sanford is situated on a broad plain rising with remarkable evenness from the sandy shores of Lake Monroe, ascending to an elevation of forty-five feet in a distance of less than a mile. Beginning at Lake Monroe the streets are 330 feet apart. The following are the elevations from actual survey, taking

High water mark	0.0	Sixth street	23.0
Commercial street	8.9	Seventh street	25.0
First street	11.0	Eighth street	25.75
Second street	15.5	Tenth street	26.5
Third street	18.0	Sixteenth street	33.0
Fourth street	20.0	Twentieth street	44.0
Fifth street	21.5

THE HOTELS.—The Sanford House is the largest hostelry here. It is only open winters, and its grounds lead down to the shores of the lake.

The Sirrine House is situated in the centre of the city, and has the patronage of railroad officials and prominent real estate men.

The Hotel San Leon is noted for its excellent table and polite attention, and is one of the headquarters for commercial men.

The Prevatt Hotel is on a prominent corner near the depot and steamboat landings, and was formerly The Tehan House.

The Buckheit House has long been known as a well established caravansary.

GAS WORKS.—Gas has recently been put in and other enterprises are in operation, including an ice factory.

Sanford has passed through "the awaiting development stage" and has facilities more than ordinary, which will naturally make it the business centre and distributing point for South Florida, being so situated by its geographical position as to command and attract the business of that portion of the state.

HOMELAND

POLK COUNTY, FLORIDA.

This substantial and beautiful village is situated six miles south of Bartow, the county seat of Polk County, Florida, on the Florida Southern Railway, in the center of the richest country for agriculture and fruit in South Florida. It was established in January, 1886, and already is a regular station, and has express, telegraph and United States post-offices, one general and one drug store, a hotel and livery stable, and other business interests. Prospectors are invited to inspect this town before locating. Good health, good roads, and good prospects.

BARTOW.

It was a great day for Bartow when, in January, 1885, a branch of the South Florida Railroad reached the town and was opened to the public. Commencing with the northern part of the State, two hundred miles or more away, the people had been impatiently watching the progress of the Iron Horse each year; at first, and later each month, bringing it nearer and nearer to their doors. At last the time could be counted by days, and in the above named month and year there was a grand celebration in honor of the event. There was "music by the band," speeches of welcome to the excursionists who came to rejoice with the people of Bartow, processions, barbecues, fireworks and a ball was the order of the day. Four months later, or in May, 1885, the population was 493. To-day it is 1,576. The city is situated almost equi-distant from the Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf, on a broad plateau of high land, which makes the ridge of the peninsula of Florida some 114 feet above the level of the ocean. It is the capital of Polk County, which has some of the richest soil in the State. The distance to Bartow Junction, on the main line of the South Florida Railroad, is 17 miles; to Charlotte Harbor, 74 miles; to Sanford, 85 miles; to Tampa, 46 miles; to Palatka, via Fla. So. R. R., 192 miles; to Jacksonville, 248 miles; to Savannah, Ga., 420 miles. At and surrounding Bartow on every side are large quantities of the most fertile and desirable lands. The roads are hard and the sidewalks firm. There is also a variety of surface, which is gently rolling, precluding the monotony caused by broad stretches of flat lands. Here are hill and dale, with gentle swells, furnishing delightful building sites and ample drainage—the central portion of the town being higher than the surrounding and contiguous country.

"The broad streets and avenues cross each other at right-angles, the blocks being of one acre each. Along the streets and in the yards of the residents are numerous vigorous oaks and other trees that give a most delightful and congenial shade, the like of which is to be found in but few places outside of the fertile ridge of Polk County. Here, too, are vigorous orange trees, laden with an immense quantity of the 'apples of the Hesperides—fit food for the gods.'

"The centre of attraction and of business is the capacious, elegantly and substantially furnished court house, the finest in South Florida, which occupies not only a central, but also the highest, part of the town. The fence around it encloses a square of one acre of land—one block—which is surrounded by a line of posts connected by chain cables. About a rod within is a substantial picket fence. On the four streets surrounding, and their extensions, are grouped many of the stores, offices, hotels and business houses."

The Florida Southern Railway, during the past year, was also built, and is now running, connecting Palatka, its northern terminus, with Charlotte Harbor, its southern. Other railroads are in contemplation, which will make Bartow a railroad centre, as it is already a natural business centre of a large extent of a most fertile country. Pure water is readily secured by wells dug through alternate strata of sand and clay 25 to 30 feet deep.

"The first settlement in the corporation's limits was made in 1851. In 1852 several families settled in the near vicinity. Being far distant from transportation and without good roads—Tampa, on the Gulf of Mexico, forty-five miles distant, being the nearest trading post and post office—the population increased very slowly, notwithstanding the remarkable fertility of the soil and salubrity of the climate. In 1866, Bartow was made the county seat and the International Ocean Telegraph line was built, and opened an office here. The first store was built and opened the same year. The court-house, a hotel, a school-house and masonic lodge, and several other buildings were also erected in 1866. Then things resumed their usual quiet course, the lack of transportation being an insurmountable obstacle.

"The population increased very slowly and no attempt was made to build a town. The chief industry of the people was the raising of cattle and agricultural products for home use. The people were self-supporting from the fertile soil. In 1868 Capt. David Hughes located here, built a store-house, and went into the cattle business on a large scale. W. T. Carpenter had the first and only store for the sale of goods, from early in 1865 to 1870, when Capt. Hughes opened his store to the public and has since done an immense trade."

He is the proprietor of Hughes Opera House, an active worker for the benefit of his adopted city, and when last seen by the writer was circulating a petition with a view of building a railroad from Bartow to the Gulf. This city is no exception to others in one respect. It has its drones, its non-progressive, so-called representative men, but they are gradually being ignored by the progressive majority. The recent organization of a Board of Trade shows the determination of the people to act together in the pushing and keeping of Bartow before the world.

In 1881 Mr. G. W. Smith came to Bartow, "the trip from Orlando, with his family and household effects, being made in ox-carts over rough trails and swollen unbridged streams. They were eight days on the way, camping at night. Is it any wonder that Bartow, or Polk County, fertile at it is, is not more thickly peopled? Mr. Smith was pleased with the country, its advantages and its opportunities, and having had extensive experience in other sections, he knew a good thing when he saw it. He therefore purchased about one-sixth of the then surveyed town, bought a saw-mill, and later opened a store."

On July 1st, 1882, the corporate government was organized. Only 28 legal voters were found in the corporate limits, and of these 22 were present. Since that time there has been one continuous line of improvements. A new court house was built in 1884, which has been followed by new hotels, churches, fine residences, business blocks, too numerous to mention. It is the intention to make Bartow an educational centre, by the establishing of a college here, lands and several thousands of dollars having already been subscribed for that purpose. An ice factory is also a new enterprise recently established by E. W. Codington, Esq., president of the Bartow Board of Trade. The Polk County Bank, F. W. Page, president, and William J. Emerson, cashier, is the pioneer bank, and does a good business.

"The Bartow of to-day comprises a beautiful tract of rolling country, wide streets crossing each other at right angles, beautiful oaks and other delightful shade trees scattered throughout the corporation, substantial plank sidewalks and crossings in the chief business portion of the town, though the ground is so firm, and yet absorbs the falling rain so quickly, that they are very little needed. The untraveled parts of the streets, the uncultivated parts of the yards and the fields are covered with a vigorous growth of grass. Orange groves abound, and outside of the business part of the rapidly-growing town the lessening tracts of pine, and of pine intermingled with oak, will not long await their destiny, for they are being removed to make place for buildings and groves, and gardens of fruits, vegetables and flowers."

Having read a brief account of this young and growing city the reader is respectfully referred to the following pages which give the names of the people, a classified list of the business men and a record of officials, institutions, societies, corporations, etc., etc. To be represented in this book a city must not only have a sufficient number of people but it must have business enough and enterprise enough to support it. Look over the list and those names in prominent type may safely be classed among the earnest, active workers for Bartow's supremacy in the near future as a business centre and a successful city numbering many thousands.

HOMELAND.—Six miles south of Bartow, on the Florida Southern Railway, is the village of Homeland, established January, 1886, surrounded by the same kind of rich and fertile country as Bartow. It may be called a suburb of Bartow for in the near future there will be one succession of happy homes between the two places. It already has express, telegraph, and U. S. post offices and several business enterprises.

TAMPA.

[THE METROPOLIS OF THE GULF.]

After reviewing most if not all the representative cities in East and South Florida, we now come to Tampa, the last, but not by any means the least. She is the Metropolis of the Gulf, as Jacksonville is of the Atlantic, and is fast emphasizing that quotation, "The last shall be first." For years she has waited the arrival of the iron horse, and now, from an obscure settlement, reached from the north by a tedious journey of several days from Jacksonville, she is accessible, after a few short hours, by fast express trains. Not only this, but her praises are sung and her name "hung on the outer walls" by those indefatigable and enterprising railroad men throughout the north and west, and every depot and railroad office repeat the names in many colors, "Havana and Tampa." Since the publication of our last year's Directory, the brick era in building up Tampa has commenced, which is illustrated in several large brick business blocks, notable among which is that of The First National Bank of Tampa. A vast improvement has been made in the style of architecture of the homes of the people.

There are five foreign steamers arriving at this port per week. Four of them run to Havana, and one to Nassau. There is also a regular line to New Orleans, and several steamers running up and down the coast or in the bay. For two years or more Tampa had only one railroad connecting her with the outside world, but The Florida Railway and Navigation Company are fast completing their road direct to the city, the passenger depot to be on the old Fort Brooke Reservation, 239 miles from Jacksonville, the same distance it is claimed that it is via Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West Railway and South Florida Railroad. While to get to the deepest water the road will be extended two miles farther, terminating on the spot that Senator Yulee selected for the same purpose thirty years ago.

The shipping—importing and exporting trade of Tampa—is larger than it is generally supposed. Following is a table which gives a rough estimate showing the amount of duties, that would have been collected at this port, had this been a port of entry, or if the immediate transportation act had been in effect, from the 1st day of January, 1886, to the 15th day of November, 1886:

1,402 Bales Tobacco | 135 lbs. per Bale | 189,270 lbs. at 35 c. per lb. | Duties, $66,244 50

Statement showing the number of tons arrived at this port, including both foreign and coastwise, (yet all arrivals are coastwise, from the fact that this is only a port of delivery, and all vessels foreign must first enter at Key West):

S. S. "Hutchinson"	909.93 Tons,	22 Times	2,001,846
" "Whitney"	766.93 "	36 "	2 760,948
" "Mascotte"	520. "	57 "	2,964,000
" "Morgan"	537. "	5 "	268,500
" "Lizzie Henderson"	281. "	15 "	421,800

Total tons from January 1 to to Nov. 15, 1886, 84,170.94.

Ex-Governor George F. Drew and W. B. Clarkson, Esq., have recently become largely interested in Tampa.

The City of Tampa is situated at the head of Hillsborough Bay, one of the two branches of Tampa Bay proper, 40 miles from the Gulf of Mexico, and at the mouth of Hillsborough River, which is a navigable stream for ten miles, large sea-going vessels daily landing their freight and passengers at its wharves.

The history of the place dates back to 1824, and it was originally known as Fort Brooke, which was a military fort during the early Indian wars, and from its delightful and healthy situation has been retained by the military authorities as the sanitary station for the garrison of Key West.

Fort Brooke is a romantic place and is ornamented with grand old oaks large enough to be called the monarchs of the forest.

The town was first laid in 1847 in one-acre-square blocks, with the streets 80 feet broad, which insures continued air circulation and healthfulness.

It is at the southern terminus of the South Florida Railroad, 115 miles from Sanford, and 239 by rail from Jacksonville. The first passenger train arrived in Tampa Dec. 10, 1883, since which time it has increased largely in population and influence. The population on the publication of our '86 directory was 2,376. To-day it is 3,684, or if we add the estimated population of Ybor City 2,000, Tampa's population will reach 5,684.

YBOR CITY.

Having written of Tampa proper this sketch would be incomplete if its magic suburb, Ybor City, was not mentioned. At first it was considered an appendage to the old settled city of Tampa, but already the new city of Ybor is assuming proportions of no mean magnitude, which may, in the near future, rival in its own peculiar way its sister city.

On the 8th day of October, 1885, the first tree was felled in the forest which covered the site on which Ybor City is now building. A few weeks prior to the date above mentioned, V. Martinez Ybor & Co., cigar manufacturers of Havana, Key West and New York, purchased a tract of land adjacent to the city of Tampa, consisting of thirty acres, on which to begin operations; but the tract proved only to be a nucleus and in a very short time they extended their purchases; and at present they own 111 acres in this one block, and but a short distance east they now own a tract of 1,000 acres, and smaller tracts in surrounding localities.

The number of dwelling houses erected are 232, ranging in cost from $300 to $3,500. The actual expenditure in buildings and improvements by this company already exceeds $250,000, while buildings continue to go up as rapidly as material can be procured and carpenters can build them. The magnificent three story brick factory, is one of the best and most commodious structures in the State and affords ample room for about 600 employees. Shade trees have been planted on either side of the wide streets, the dwelling houses are being enclosed by neat picket fences, sidewalks being laid, and Ybor City now presents all the attractions of a modern city. V. Martinez Ybor, the senior member of the firm, owns a fine orange grove on one side of the city, on which he has recently erected a palatial family residence for his family. The Company have a complete fire department, an engine house, constructed for the purpose and situated near the factory and central portion of the city. The sanitary condition of the place is kept in good order at the expense of the Company. Thus it will be seen that the proprietors of Ybor City are fully alive to the interests of their people and have a proper conception of their duties.

V. Martinez Ybor, Edward Manrara and Edward Martinez Ybor, compose the firm of V. Martinez Ybor & Co., of Havana, New York, and Ybor City, importers and dealers in Havana leaf tobacco and manufacturers of strictly pure Havana leaf cigars and cigarettes.

In the Ybor City factory this firm is turning out 900,000 cigars a month, but the capacity of the factory is one and one-half millions, which will soon be reached. At present their weekly pay-roll to cigarmakers and other employees of the factory amounts to $4,700 and $4,800, but it must be understood that this amount includes no part of the amount weekly expended on the erection of buildings, improvements and employees required to carry on this work.

Following is a list of the larger business houses which have grown up with the city, including the firm of Messrs. Sanchez & Haya, which also manufactures cigars and cigarettes at this point: Juan Terry & Co., Gonzales & Costello, Gibson & Breghar, Miller & Henderson, La Economie Coöperative Association, José Agusti, General Merchandise; Yarrino Callos, Koss & Co., Bakeries; Luis Serreno, E. A. Brantley, Pablo Sendoya, Emilio Garcia, Bars; Maximo M. Diaz, Drugs; Fernando Oceguera, Francisco Bencomo, Barber Shops, Hotel de la Havana; F. M. Robles, José Gonzales, Butchers; Manuel Perez, Notions; J. P. Garner & Son, General Merchandise; Eli P. Bloche, Millinery; Antonio Menendez, Antonio Salazar, Urbano Gonzales, Restaurants; Lorenzo Garcia, Dry Goods; P. F. Smith, Jos. Roberts, R. H. Gazner, William E. Goode, Boarding Houses; John Hamilton, Fruit Store; Gladden & Hoffner, William E. Goode, William Stacy, R. H. Garner, R. L. Sims, Contractors and Builders; A. Entenza, Fish and Ice.

It needs no effort to attract attention to its importance and visionary speculation to convince the reader of the promising future of Ybor. Facts and figures speak for themselves. We only desire to impress upon our readers that New Ybor City is adjacent to the City of Tampa, and that the latter city is directly enjoying the benefits of the great capital and enterprise that is being expended. It is this enterprise that has contributed largely in keeping "dull times" away from Tampa during the past year, and which contributes with many other advantages to its greatness in the future.

WETUMPKA CITY

FLORIDA.

LOCATED on the Florida Southern Railway, some fifty-eight miles south of Palatka, is a tract of 3,000 acres, owned by Judge Samuel F. Marshall, of Ocala. This famed section has long invited the attention of passengers who have beheld it from the car windows. It is notably a high and healthy locality, with a magnificent growth of oak, magnolia and hickory, and every variety of hard wood of which the Florida forest can boast.

THE ADVANTAGES

possessed by this tract are, its richness of soil and comparative elevation, which not only insures healthfulness, but a remarkable exemption from frost. It is a noteworthy fact that during the severe frosts of the winter of 1883-84, the lemon trees here were unimpaired.

For more than a quarter of a century Judge Marshall's family have owned this property, awaiting to place it on the market. The town plat embraces 160 acres of undulating land, adapted specially to the purposes of a town. The most perfect drainage is insured and all those natural conditions which are requisite to salubrity and scenic effect. The town lots are of ample size, admitting of subdivision as future necessity and interest may dictate. Lots have been set apart for school, church and park purposes; streets of full width have been laid off, and the plan has been ordered as benefits the requirements of

A WELL-ORDERED TOWN.

Adjacent to the town and extending far back are tracts of from ten to forty acres for groves, vegetable gardens and other agricultural and horticultural purposes. Each of these tracts is accessible by wide avenues. The land is of excellent quality and is highly adapted to

ORANGE AND VEGETABLE CULTURE.

The most desirable topographical features exist and the general advantages of the place are unsurpassed. It is the purpose of Judge Marshall to sell both town lots and other tracts on favorable terms to actual settlers.

Full particulars will be furnished on application by letter or otherwise.

ADDRESS,

S. F. MARSHALL,

OCALA, FLORIDA.

[THE METROPOLIS OF MARION COUNTY.]

The county seat of Marion County may be, with propriety, designated one of the most promising cities of inland Florida. It is most advantageously located in the midst of a beautiful tract of country, and is directly on the line of the Florida Railway & Navigation Company, Florida Southern Railway and Silver Springs, Ocala & Gulf Railroad. In 1876 Ocala had a population of 300; in 1884, it was estimated at 2,000; in January 1886, 2,504, at present it is 3,824.

The climate is unsurpassed in any section of the State. The city is surrounded on three sides by pine forests, which assists much in making it a favorite resort for patients afflicted with lung diseases, catarrh and asthma. Prof. Loomis, of the Medical University of New York, recommends Ocala as a health resort. The annual mean barometor is 30.101, thermometer 68.6.

During the winter of 1883–4 the city was the scene of a disastrous conflagration, which destroyed a large portion of the business quarter, including many prominent mercantile houses. Undismayed by the disaster, the citizens rallied and the portion destroyed was speedily rebuilt. That Ocala is a prosperous trade center is attested in the fact that a number of prominent Jacksonville merchants, notably Messrs. S. B. Hubbard, and others, have established branch stores here and are doing a good business. Mr. W. T. Taylor in selecting the most advantageous point for planting his immense manufacturing establishment, could find no place so well suited as Ocala, and has moved his entire outfit from North Carolina to this point. It adds much to Ocala's manufacturing importance.

Ocala is 106 miles, by rail, in a southerly direction from Jacksonville. It is situated quite near the center of Marion county, a county which bears the same relation to Florida as the Blue Grass region does to Kentucky. It is one of the largest as well as one of the most fertile and productive counties in the State, especially in Sea Island cotton and sugar-cane. It is claimed that nearly two-thirds of the oranges grown in the State, are of Marion County growth.

The lands are generally elevated and undulating, drained both to Ocean and Gulf, producing fine corn, oats, potatoes, rice, Guina and other grasses, millet, pinders, and all kinds of vegetables. Many of the pine lands are very fine, being underlaid with clay, marl, and limestone.

The hammocks are the richest and most extensive in the State. There is a solid body of beautiful undulating lands extending from Ocala south, three to seven miles wide and eighteen long, terminating near Whitesville, a rapidly growing place, that in many respects will equal the famed lands of the Mississippi in productiveness. Equally as fine land lies north of Ocala, in the Sugar, Wetumka, Fort Drane, and Tuskawilla hammocks, and in the western portion bordering on the Withlacoochee and embraced between that river and Ocala, is an extensive scope of country containing remarkably fine hammock and pine lands ; and in that section is the beautifnl "Blue Spring," second only to Silver Spring, and of very much the same character.

Beautiful scenery, fish and game in abundance, easy access, and a consequent thriving business combine to furnish a most admirable perspective.

Within the past year the educational facilities have been much increased by the establishment of a fine grade High School, with an attendance of nearly 400 pupils.

Surrounding Ocala, and tributary to it, are the flourishing towns of Bellview, New Danbury, Candler, Cotton Plant, Silver Springs and Parkersburg ; the latter named being a comparatively new settlement, but attracting the attention of many new comers who have purchased lands and are making homes there. Among the new towns which have recently sprung up in the vicinity of Ocala, one of the most promising is Wetumpka, owned by Judge Samuel F. Marshall. It lies a few miles north of the city on the Florida Southern Railway, and is a part of the celebrated hammock from which it derives its name. It is surrounded by the most fertile lands, which are well adapted to the cultivation of oranges and vegelables, cotton and all the staple productions, which, together with its beautiful location, will insure it a prosperous future.

Ocala is surrounded by numerous fine orange groves for miles, among the largest and most profitable of which may be mentioned those belonging to Eichelberger & Gilliams, Harris, J. Schwerin, Ex-Mayor M. D. Burnet, Sol Benjamin, Potter, A. L. Eichelberger, F. D. Pooser, S. M. G. Garys estate, Green, Dr. Fake, General Tillson, and Dunn, known as Dunn's Park, the latter named being in the center of the city. The drives around the city are interesting, and quail and deer are abundant. The Bank of Ocala has recently completed a new bank building, three stories in height, pressed brick, costing $15,000. This bank is one of the most prosperous and "solid" institutions of the kind in the State. The proprietors, John F. Dunn & Co., are also largely interested in many other enterprises which are tending largely toward the development of the resources of their state, town and county.

The main office of The Silver Springs, Ocala & Gulf Railroad is situated here. This road is now being built from Ocala to Point Pinellas, on the Gulf, 135 miles. The road already extends to Blue Springs, and the work is gradually nearing its termination. Major N. R. Gruelle is Chief Engineer of the road.

Among the more elegant private residences of Ocala are those belonging to the estate of Col. S. M. G. Gary, Mr. Buckalew, Col.

John M. Martin, Samuel F. Marshall, Col. R. Bullock, Mr. Chandler, William Cox, Mrs. Prentice, Dr. Snowden, Wm. Fox, Capt. S. D. McConnell, Wm. J. McGrath, J. N. Strobhar, T. A. Steel, E. W. Agnew and Wm. P. Trantham.

Such is Ocala; and the travelers, whose name is legion, that during the Winter months "hie them hither," if they wish to see a representative, live business city in the Land of Flowers, should by all means include Ocala in their route.

LEESBURG.

[THE CITY OF LAKES.]

Among the enterprising cities in this section of the State, Leesburg believes in her destiny as "The Metropolis of South Florida." It was settled in 1857 by three brothers, E. M., J. A. and J. C. Lee and Mr. J. W. Fussell. At this time there was neither church nor school within ten miles of the settlement, a frame house was an unknown luxury; pine logs constituted the only building material, the nearest saw and grist mill was at Sumterville, the nearest store was at Adamsville, a distance of ten miles, the nearest shipping point was Silver Springs, a distance of thirty-five miles; thither was brought the cotton, sugar and molasses which the simple hearted settler converted into the few necessities of this truly Arcadian life.

The first steamboat made its appearance via the river Ocklawaha into Lake Griffin in September, 1857. This was made possible by the enterprise of Col. Hubbard L. Hart, of Palatka, who cleared all obstructions from that romantic stream. It took four days at that time to reach Jacksonville. The time by rail is now reduced to seven hours. The first place of public worship, in the shape of a brush arbor, was erected in 1858. The first store was built in 1866 by Messrs. J. C. & E. M. Lee. In 1868 the county site was removed from Sumterville to Leesburg, at which time it assumed the name. The county site was later (1882) removed to Sumterville, where it remains. Leesburg was incorporated as a city in 1873. Her first officers were: J. G. Wallace, Mayor; Aiken Stivender, Marshal; G. M. Lee, W. J. Adams, F. C. Childs, J. W. Dyches and A. A. Stivender, Aldermen.

Leesburg is situated between Lakes Harris and Griffin, on the Florida Southern Railway, the St. John's & Lake Eustis Railroad and the Fla. Railway & Nav. Co.s R. R. It stands on a peninsula 800 yards wide stretching between two lakes, the town covering a belt of rolling pine land. Its principal street is macadamized and for more than a mile is ornamented on either side by a row of wild orange trees hung much of the year with golden fruitage.

Leesburg is a fine shipping point for oranges. There were shipped during the last season 60,000 boxes from 1,230 acres lying within a radius of 3 miles of the city.

Leesburg is 35 miles south of Ocala, 105 from Palatka, 161½ from Jacksonville, 108 north of Tampa, 42 from Orlando and 40 southwest from Astor. The St. John's & Lake Eustis road was completed to Fort Mason, 14 miles distant, in 1880, and there connected by steamer across the lake to a dock about one mile from the business center of the city. In January, 1885, it was extended to Leesburg. In January, 1885, the Florida Southern Railway entered the city and in April of the same year the F. R. & N. reached here. One special feature of Leesburg is its macadamized streets. The principal street is 66 feet wide and has a surface as hard as marble.

A High School building, of brick, was erected in 1886. During the year 1885 there were 56 new buildings erected in Leesburg, and the era of Brick Business Blocks is just commencing. Lakes Harris and Griffin are within a mile of the business center. The former is about 8x9 miles in size; the latter 3½x8. Steamers are run on Lakes Harris and Griffin, touching at all points.

The Leesburg Commercial, which succeeded the Sentinel, is a live, well-edited paper, full of news and interest to Leesburg.

"When the resources of the country shall have been developed—when the thousands of young groves which surround her shall have come into bearing, when the fruitless pines are cleared and their places taken by money-producing trees and vegetable gardens, when other railroads which are even now projected shall have been built, and when the broad bosoms of our beautiful lakes are churned by larger paddle wheels, we may confidently expect the metropolis of South Florida. This is no visionary dream, the past speaks for itself, and the future may be read in the past."

FRUITLAND PARK,

Lying five miles northwest of Leesburg, is the largest English colony in Florida, which was planted in 1882 by Mr. G. C. Stapylton, of Morrison, Stapylton & Co., bankers, of Leesburg, who are also agents for it. It is in a fine farming and fruit section, is a station of the F. S. Ry, and only a few minutes from Leesburg. There is a church (Episcopal), a club house, stores, and many other conveniences.
